

July 5th 2007

Dear Sir,

First allow me to extend my support to you and your colleagues. What is happening to you and your neighbors is outrageous and unbelievable; I always thought that such a behavior could never happen in Jordan the country of law as the sign says on the way the airport. But it seems like this behavior is contagious, it travels with the same people that practice it in other countries.

I expect from our supreme court and the judicial system to be just and fair to you, your neighbors and the foreign investors who should respect the people of Jordan, the laws and traditions. I also hope that this letter would find its way to the concerned people because I am just one of many people that feel the same about the whole issue. As the popular saying say اكلت يوم اكل الثور الأبيض.

A shocked Jordanian